Creating and keeping a safe workplace is its own reward, but sometimes employees need a little incentive to get there.

That's where Award Concepts comes in.

Our new Safety Points Program is an easy and effective way to encourage, reward and reinforce safe practices in all areas of your organization. Employees earn points for their safety achievements – a set number of days without an incident, suggesting or implementing new best practices, taking a first aid course. Then they redeem their points for an award from our awesome gift collection!

We'll create an awards collection just for you. We're THE BEST when it comes to custom corporate jewelry: rings, pins, belt buckles, all designed and manufactured right in our St. Charles, Illinois facility. Maybe you'd prefer to offer electronics, home décor, personal care items – no problem. With literally hundreds of gifts available, we'll find the perfect mix to inspire your employees to play it safe.

THINK: The safe way is THE BEST way, even in recognition!
