

Feedback

Everybody's got opinions and we want to hear them! Feedback from your employees determines what makes up our gift collections. It's the key to providing high-quality, desirable recognition items that your employees will really appreciate.

Our review platform ensures that our gift offerings have a high perceived value by maintaining and monitoring the satisfaction of your awardees. Simply put, you won't see anything second-rate in our programs.

Here's how it works:

- Your employees can read gift reviews from others who chose that gift as their award.
- Your employees receive a follow-up asking them to review the gift item they selected.
- Award Concepts responds by resolving any issues brought forward in reviews, keeping quality and satisfaction high.
